OVERVIEW: EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

The educational history section on the application is exactly what it sounds like: it's where you tell your chosen educational institute about your academic performance till date.

From grades to your board of education, these educational institutes will want to get a detailed look at your academic standing when deciding on scholarship decisions.

Please give full details of your attendance at, and qualifications obtained from, schools or educational Institutes (most recent first)

OVERVIEW: AWARDS & HONOURS

This section is meant for awards and honours. You can be flexible here, but the awards and honours included should either be selective or recognize that you excelled in one of your pursuits.

The awards and honours list is a direct way to add to your impressiveness. Together, they'll paint the preliminary picture of who you are outside of the classroom.

Please give details of any academic awards and/or honours that you have received (most recent first)
